A Romantic Comedy in Three Acts

CHARACTERS

John Carteret	Willie Ainley
Dr. Owen Harding	Kenneth Wayne
Ellen	Jeremiah Wayne
Kathleen Dungannon	Moonyeen Clare

SYNOPSIS

This is a romantic story of Kathleen Dungannon, who is very much in love with Kenneth Wayne. But her uncle, John Carteret will not give his consent for their marriage because of a grudge he has carried for fifty years against Kenneth's father.

Kenneth was sent to war only to return four years later, a crippled man. He tried to make excuses for not feeling the same toward Kathleen, but with the help of Dr. Harding, John's best friend, the two were finally united.

Dedication

In sincere appreciation and gratitude, we, the class of 1943, dedicate this volume of the North Canton High School Annual to our teacher and advisor, Miss Helen Schleppi.

We hope this will repay her in a small way for her patient, unselfish, and unwavering guidance through the four most interesting years of our school life.

Title: COMEDY OF ERRORS

Characters: THE CLASS OF '43

Place: NO-CA-HI

Director: MR. TRACHSEL

Stage Manager: MISS SCHLEPPI

ACT I—Freshman Year

Scene 1: The Sophomores give the Class of '43 a big send-off into high school life with an initiation party.

Scene 2: The struggle in doing some real work in math, science, and Latin.

Scene 3: Many of us for the first time, experience the agonies of scholarship tests.

ACT II—Sophomore Year

Scene 1: Our turn is here, as we put the new Freshmen over the hurdles.

Scene 2: Mr. Israel acquires many gray hairs from his Sophomore honor (?) study hall.

Scene 3: A few of our boys get in on varsity sports, but all show promise of being future varsity stars.

ACT III—Junior Year

Scene 1: Our varsity footballers show their stuff, when they make No-Ca-Hi county champs.

Scene 2: Many of our class members take part in the winning of the grand prize by the band in the Defense Bond Contest.

Scene 3: Our first dramatic effort, which gave us a chance to show off our Barrymores, was "The Nut Farm."

Scene 4: Our first Jr.-Sr. Prom and what a spread! We gave the Seniors the smoothest orchestra and food this side of heaven.

ACT IV—Senior Year

Scene 1: All of us climb in our Sunday suits and get our pictures taken. Those, along with the other senior customs, keep us busy.

Scene 2: Our basketball team, composed almost entirely of senior members, playing for the first time in Class A, runs up an impressive record.

Scene 3: The Juniors give us Seniors our final farewell with a Prom.

Scene 4: We get our diplomas with all the pomp of graduation for which we have waited for twelve years. Our boys graduate from one class to Class 1-A.

Senior Class Will

We, the graduating class of 1943, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to our inferiors, the undergraduates, the following most admirable qualities of which we have been possessed these many years.

A lifetime membership in "Mother King's Home of Correction for Wayward Girls" to Nan DeMuesy.

Bud and Frances' mutual understanding to Violet Schneider and Rollin Reiss.

Rip Jaberg's curly hair to Ned Kamp.

Future American Government arguments to up and coming Juniors.

Louis Saunder's ability to sleep in Physics class to David Gibler.

Helen Cowan's dignity to Barbara Dorn.

Carvings on the desks to anyone amused by them.

Ella Mae's ability to get her man to Doris Brumbaugh.

Bob McDowell's studiousness to Louis Acheson.

Hal Workman's unknown powers of reason to Bob Mathie.

To the apparently efficient and wealthy Juniors the Senior Class debt.

Virginia Archer's sense of comedy (?) to Jean Jones.

To Donna Harman, Chick Kidder's devilishness.

Doris Day's singing ability (?) to whom it may concern.

Ellen Holben's primping to Jean King.

Bob McCaman's way with the teachers to Rita Smith.

To future basketball teams our record of an undefeated season.

Miss Schleppi, to some undeserving man of 30.

Bob Oberlin's knowledge of Physics to Glenn Wehl.

Frank Burkholtz's ability at sports to Ralph Harshman.

To the Juniors we lovingly bequeath room 304, front seats in the auditorium, a row boat and wind-break for all future students who have to come down the walks.

Signed, sealed, and delivered.

SYNOPSIS

ACT I

Solomon Levy's Apartment - - - - - - - - New York City

Abie brings his Irish Bride, Rose Mary, home to meet his Father. Solomon is finally convinced Rose Mary is Jewish and a Jewish wedding is planned.

ACT II

Same as Act I - - - - - - - - - - One Week Later

Trouble arises as Rose Mary's Father, Patrick Murphy, arrives during the Jewish ceremony and reveals the fact that Rose Mary is Irish.

ACT III

Christmas Eve - - - - - - - - - - One Year Later

Solomon Levy and Patrick Murphy meet again when they bring presents to their twin grandchildren. All is forgiven and the proud grandfathers take over the care of the children. Or at least they try to.

"Mrs. Miniver"

This is a three-act play dramatized from Jan Struther's book.

CHARACTERS

Clem	Mr. Miniver
Mrs. Miniver	His Wife
Vin—Toby—Judy	Their Children
Adie	The Housekeeper
Helen	Engaged to Vin
Johnny	Helen's Brother
Susan	A Friend of Mrs. Miniver
Lady Burfish	A Titled Lady
Tommy—Jenny—Liza	Evacuee Children
Air-Raid Warden	Of the Neighborhood

The story takes place in England at the outbreak of the present war. It deals with the patriotic and unselfish part Mrs. Miniver, her family, and associates play in the war effort.

"GEE, THEY STILL TEACH SCHOOL"

SEPTEMBER

Dear Diary:

This month certainly has brought about plenty of new adjustments. My, how the change from vacation to school can affect a person. Oh, well, back to the yearly grind again. The skirt and sweater fad moved in immediately with the new school year. Flash! The brand new seniors invaded big study hall. The school is all hepped up for football season to start, we're hoping for a successful season, too!

OCTOBER

Dear Diary:

Things are running smoothly now. We had an assembly with Maurice Boyagin as speaker. Later we had Mr. Bogg, who showed pictures of the Ohio State Penitentiary and Jack Raymon and his reptile show. Rev. Beck was back again for the first time this year. We always will welcome our pastors. Football is on the swing again with N. C. vs. Coventry, Louisville, Canton Twp., Sebring, and Middlebranch.

NOVEMBER

Dear Diary:

The football game at Orrville opened up this month's activities with a bang. Rev. Cossaboom addressed the high school on the 9th. Rev. Yeager, the new Lutheran minister, spoke to us at our American Legion Assembly on the 11th. Mr. Melville, a glass blower, demonstrated his ability to us the next day. Ah, yes, here we have a Student Council Dance following the Jackson Twp. game. This really is a treat. "Mental Hygiene" was the topic for Mrs. Bertha Hess's talk on the 17th which caused a great deal of ardent discussion in the class rooms for days after. Ouch! here comes gas rationing worries. Well, if it isn't Turkey a la stuffin's . . . . . See you later, Diary.

N.C. WINS AGAIN

DECEMBER

Dear Diary:

I'm terribly sorry I didn't take you with me to see "Abie's Irish Rose," given by the Juniors. I won't forget you the next time. It was a "pip." This month we hope to start a new high in basketball. Our first game is with Hartville, then St. John's, Canton Twp., and Jackson. Well, shut my mouth! Honey chile, we won all four! shh!! A villain has now entered the scene in the form of our victorious Alumni team. Oh, well —— such is life —— I guess. Dec. 23rd held in store for us a whole bag full of entertainment. Honest, Dear Diary, I didn't mean to eat so much ice cream. But you know how these Christmas parties are. Vacation starts tomorrow. Merry Christmas, everyone. Speaking of spirits, they were plenty high on the 26th. The Senior Girl Reserves sponsored a really enjoyable dance with Harry Woodfield and his orchestra at the Community Bldg. See you next year.

Calendar

JANUARY

Dear Diary:

Happy New Year to you. I feel pretty good considering ????? Did you see the N. C. - Louisville game on the 2nd? Our good luck still holds. North Cantons own Lt. Mohler addressed the assembly on the 4th. He told us all about his true to life experiences as a navy flyer. Gosh, dont we have a swell basketball team? This month they beat Middlebranch, Hartville, Ravenna, Sebring, Lincoln, and Louisville. Mid-year exams began the 14th—Ouch! Flowers to all participants of the Music Festival, that was held on the 29th. Dear Diary, I believe I'm safe in saying that it was the best yet.

FEBRUARY

Dear Diary:

Oh my, how the time flies, only four more months until school is out. Sam Campbell was here for assembly. He showed us the most beautiful colored film of the forests and animals of the Northern States. Our team is still going strong with wins over Timken, Canton Twp., Canal Fulton, Jackson Twp. (by the way, after that game, the Sr. G. R. gave a swell sport dance at the C. B. Everyone had a swell time). The other two games were Akron Jennings and Kent Roosevelt. On Lincolns Birthday, who else but Miss Buchanan (now Mrs. Phil Stahler) would do such a thing as to get married. Gosh, just think, we got out of school for four afternoons because of canned food rationing. On the 28th was the fateful drawing for the tournament at Kent.

MARCH

Dear Diary:

Hold on, everybody, here comes the sectional and district tournaments. Mrs. Miniver was given by the Dramatic Club. It no doubt was a success because—you know the Dramatic Club. Oh, yes, here was St. Patrick, all decked out in green, followed by a troup of ardent fans. The Seniors were nearing their school years with the Senior Scholarship tests as a starter. Good luck, Seniors. You'll need it.

APRIL

Dear Diary:

Music certainly held a high spot at N. C. Lindrud, a harpist, was here for assembly. Easter vacation began on Good Friday. Then everyone looked for their hidden Easter eggs. Jack Rank (Merchant of Venice) came for assembly this month.

MAY

Dear Diary:

Oh, joy, "Smilin' Through" was presented by those talented Seniors. Just think, maybe this was the last play for some of them to appear in. Here was the last time for something else, but I don't think it was a subject to mourn over—Senior exams. The poor underclassmen have to labor away for another week. Sunday the 23rd was the Baccalaureate Service followed by Commencement on the 25th. This all added up to one head. The Seniors have just completed 12 years of pleasant work. Goodbye, Dear Diary—until we meet again.

Facts For Seniors

You can serve your country at good pay in "the army behind the army." Government offices, war industries, and local business firms urgently need secretaries, stenographers, typists, bookkeepers and clerical workers.

Most Civil Service positions pay $1440 a year to start. Local office salaries are higher than ever.

You can prepare quickly for employment in useful war service by enrolling for one of our emergency courses. Summer School will begin June 14.

Appreciation

THE ANNUAL STAFF wishes to express its appreciation to Collier's Magazine for permitting us to use their cover pages as our division pages, also to the advertisers and subscribers for their financial support, and to Mr. Davis and Mr. Robertson for their photography and printing assistance. Likewise we thank Mr. Swogger for his patience and interest in us, and the student body for their co-operation in helping to make this annual a success.
